

Transition: Where K-12 and Postsecondary Meet

OKCEC and OK-AHEAD 2017 Spring Conference

March 30-31, 2017, 9:00AM to 4:30PM

Tulsa Technology Center, Owasso Campus
10800 North 140th East Ave
Owasso, OK 74055

Conference Highlights

Keynote Speaker: Mike Veny

Mike Veny is America's leading mental health speaker and a high-energy drum circle facilitator. He delivers educational, engaging, and entertaining presentations to meetings and conferences throughout the world.

Mike is fiercely committed to wellness, suicide prevention, and helping people work together more smoothly. If you are looking for a proven speaker who can address the stigma surrounding mental health and deliver a corporate drumming event, then you have come to the right place.

With 15 years of experience electrifying audiences and making meeting planners look good, his mission is to empower people to connect authentically.

More information about Mike can be found at <http://mikeveny.com/>. Photo courtesy of http://premierespeakers.com/mike_veny.

Topic Highlights

This two-day conference will focus on the transitioning student from the K-12 system to the postsecondary institution. Below are some of the highlights for the conference.

- Parent Experience & Needs
- Self-Determination & Self- Advocacy
- Accessibility in Higher Education
- IDEA vs Section 504/ADA
- Early Literacy Support

- Faculty Training
- Section 508
- Collaborative Care Teams –CAPES
- Demonstration of AT to Support High Incidence Needs
- Transgender Legalities
- Seeking Assistance in College: The Difference from High School
- Difficult Accommodations
- Q & A Panel – Mental Health, Stress, PTSD, Depression, Bullying
- Functional Skills Curriculum for the Classroom
- Person Centered Practice Going into Higher Ed.
- Autism in Adults
- Handling Stress
- Respecting and Reaching Out to Those with Disabilities

Lodging and Luncheon

Hampton Inn
9009 North 121st East Ave
Owasso, OK 74055

Rate of $91/night. Contact the hotel directly 918.609.6700 and mention the conference. Reservations must be made before March 10, 2017 to ensure availability and discount.

Luncheon and break refreshments are included in the registration fee for both days.